IN THE OVEN EVERYDAY MEALS

Breakfast: a healthy start to the day?

1

Visitors to Britain often talk about the English Breakfast as an example of how terrible British food is. The same breakfast is often the meal that British people miss most when they go abroad. So what do people eat for breakfast in other countries?

2

The healthiest breakfasts can be found in the Balkans. In Bulgaria a typical breakfast includes fresh bread and butter, sheep's milk, honey, olives, tomatoes, eggs and, most importantly, homemade yoghurt.

3

Moving east the same food is eaten for breakfast, lunch and dinner. In China this is usually rice with meat and vegetables. In Vietnam they like soups and spicy food – like Xoi, which is sticky rice eaten with peanuts and beans.

4

It might be difficult to find a more fattening breakfast than the Full English but Spain comes close. There you can eat 'chocolate con churros' which consists of fried doughnuts covered in sugar and served with a mug of thick hot chocolate. Delicious!

- A Breakfast three times a day.
 B Dairy products and vegetables.
 C The British don't like it.
 D Different points of view.
 E Sweet start to a good day.
